OFFICE HYGIENIC SHIELDS

Improving workplace hygiene to shield your associates from the spread of germs seems to be increasing dramatically these days. With offices slowly allowing their associates to return, Artitalia Group has designed the perfect solution to reduce the risk of contracting viruses and germs in an office environment with our Office Hygiene Shields.

Instead of reconfiguring your entire office layout, improve the chances of your associates staying healthy and virus-free by installing these custom commercial grade lexan polycarbonate shields that come in 3 different variations: Freestanding; Inline Configuration; and Top Dividers.
